having been lest in the steamer Central America. We ual amount of stock, is undeniable, as nearly all of the trains arriving have suffered from their depredations.

Owing to the scarcity of water in many portions of the mining region, our interior exchanges are unusually barren of items chronicling the receipt of "big lumps," the announcement of "great strikes," or the opening of "rich leads." But in quartz mining much own State furnishes in abundance, the choicest of grapes, figs, pears, peaches and plums; while every vessel from Oregon brings down superb apples, which rival in size and flavor those produced in California. From the equatorial islands of the Pacific and Maxican ports we are in constant receipt of oranges, limes, bananas, and other tropical luxuries, so that, at the present moment, probably no market in the world can rival this in the variety and perfection of her pomo-rival this in the variety and perfection of her pomological specimens.

Throughout the interior the heat has been excessive. On the 9th inst., the mercury, in some portions of the State, ran up to 120 deg, in the shade, and in very few places beside this city did it fall helow 100 deg, on that day. Even here, it will long be known as "the "hot Sunday," although the sea breeze greatly mitigated the heat of the sun in the after part of the day.

Of murders, affrays, suicides, and other deeds of crime and violence, many more are chronicled in this issue than it has been our misfortune to record for a long time past. A number of culprits have expiated the extreme penalty of the law for their oficeses, and the extreme penalty of the law for their offenses, and many more have been sent to the Penitentiary from various parts of the State.

It is a noticeable fact that arrests for commission of crime are not only more prempt than formerly, but that the guilty are surer of being convicted and of having subsequent punishment meted out to them.

Fewer fires have taken place than usual. With the exception of the burning of a hulk at Sacramento and the Metropolium Theatre in this city, none of importance have occurred.

ASSASSINATION OF THE BRITISH MINISTER

The following is from The Panama Star:
CHILL.—The bill relative to the general amosty for political offenders, which was sent up to the Presi-for pondeal ellenders, which was sent up to the President for consideration, has been returned to Congress in a modified form, and passed in both Houses.

The Mercario dei Vapor gives the following as the terms of the amended law. An amerity is granted to all persons who, on se

"The like is also granted to those who, being absent from the country for the same reasons, may return with authorization or consent of the President of the Republic; and also to those who, on account of their participation in the late events, are actually, or may be hereafter persecuted, and whom the President should degn to declare comprehended in it."

It seems that Government was already certain of a majority in the Senate who would adopt the project in these terms, as on the same day of its presentation, and before it was known to the public, it was approved by twelve votes against seven, and immediately passed to the Chamber of Deputies, where, as before mentioned, the Ministers have a majority.

Nobedy doubted from that moment that the measure would be sanctioned to the Minister's satisfaction, but still public cpinion was energetically pronounced against it, considering it stingy, unconstitutional and urjust; and, above all, because it established distinctions which, far from abating, would serve to revive

These attacks have been brilliantly supported during the two sessions of the Chamber of Deputies, where scenes very unusual in those debates have occurred. The Ministershave been completely defeated, in the opinion of the public; but still, when the moment of votation arrived, 36 representatives approved the project, and 17 voted against it.

The Supreme Court has given judgment in the case of Don B. Videln, and confirmed the sentence of death.

Many persons who were discovered to be implicated in the revolutionary movement have been ordered to be arrested.

be arrested.

The leaders of the conservative party, who have hitherto supported the Government, and the Liberals, have united and formed a strong party against the Government. They demand a change in the Cabinet and a more liberal line of policy. Government, says the Mercurio, appears ready to face the coalition, and though the country is now quiet, it depends upon the course pursued by the Government how long things will remain in that state. It is evident that Govern-ment will have to yield to the go-ahead pressure, or run the risk of a revolution.

PERU. Dates from Callos are to August 12. The painful news of the assessination of S. E. Sullivan, British Minister at Lima, is announced by this we find the annexed particulars of the assassination of Mr. Sullivan, the British Minister, in the Calloa correspondence of The Panama Star and Herald:

News has just been sent from Lima that Mr. Sullivan, the British Minister, was assassinated by six Pernvians. The Vixen has gone to Paita in search of Admiral Bruce. It is supposed that he was murdered for the British interference in the matter of the Tumbes and Los.

and Los.

I have just received the particulars of the affair.

Mr. Sullivan was dining alone, when six men, masked, entered and fired three shots, one of which is fatal, entered and fired three shots, one of which is latas, having entered the groin and passed up into the lungs. After the deed was done one of them exclaimed — I am now satisfied," and then they all disappeared. As yet no one is suspected for it. There is a desire on the part of the Peruvians to throw the whole matter as the result of an intrigue with a lady. Be that as it may, the Government feel alarmed as to what the results will be. The steamers Ucalya and Tumbes are going south to bring back Gen. Castilia and probably some troops.

ne troops. Callao, Aug. 12—3 r. m.—A Frenchman and a negro have just been arrested on suspicion of being accomplices of the assassination of Mr. Salhivan. There are not the slightest hopes of his recovering. It is now reported that the act was committed by some of the most respectable persons in Lima. However, I will give you the rumor. It appears, a short time ago a ball was given by one of the leading families in Lima, and that Mr. Sullivan took there a well-known prostitute that he has kept a long time as his mistress. The gentlemen present remonstrated with him, calling his attention to the fact that it was a gross in sult to all persons present, to which he is said to have replied that she was as good as any woman present or in Lima, and that they were all a set of prostitutes. A reward of 100 onnees is offered for the apprehension of the murderers.

The Settler's Convention adjourned on the 5th inst., after nominating Edward Stanly for Governor, Nathaniel Bennett for Supreme Court Judge, A. A. Sargeant for Attorney General, and P. M. Randall for Surveyor-General. The Democratic nominees for Lieutenant-Governor, Controller, Treasurer and State Printer, were indorsed by the Convention.

The tickets of the four political parties, viz: Democratic, American. Republican and Settlers, are now all complete, and the various Gubernatorial nominees are "stumping" it throughout the State.

The probable acceptance by the Democratic candidate for the Controllership of the Federal appointment of Surveyor-General, will render it incumbent on the Central Committee to renominate another person to fill the vacancy; but as yet no prominent personage has been suggested for the position.

The other Indian tribes in the northern part of the State are peaceably disposed, and most of them are being removed to the reservations.

The van of the overland immigration has at last crossed the Sierra Nevada, and for the past week trains have been pouring into this State through the various mountain passes. The great mass of immigrants, however, thus far, have come via Genoa, in Carson Valley and Placerville, and over the road now being tapidly improved between those places. All accounts agree as to the great numbers on the way, more than in any season since 1852. There is also much stock en route, and considerable quantities have been driven into Carson Valley in good condition.

The immigrants bring startling accounts of the depredations of the Indians beyond the Sink of the Humboldt and in the Goose Creek Mountains. Many lives are reported to have been lost, but most of these scories are doubtless exaggerated, as little evidence of an authentic character has yet been divulged. That the Indians have, however, killed and driven off an unusual amount of stock, is undeniable, as nearly all of the sion to the convention entered into between Peru and Chili in September, 1856.

Gen Castillo, on his return to Callao, had been placed under arrest by the Council of Ministers, who exercise the supreme power during the absence of the President. Castillo publishes a letter complaining of this outrage. The matter was referred to the Convention, which declaimed the action of the Council.

FIRES.

TIRE IN THE SIXTH AVENUE.

Yesterday moraing at 3 o'clock a fire broke out in the dry-goods store of James Bradley, No. 517 Sixth avenue—the alarm being given by Policeman Corn-well, who, with the aid of Officer Smith, broke in the door. The firemen were early on the ground, and soon extinguished the flames. The damage by fire and water is estimated at about $600; insured for $3,000 in the Commonwealth Insurance Company. Mr. Bradley, the proprietor of the store, was found in the hall of the house under suspicious circumstances, as supposed by Officer Cornwell, who took him into custody and conveyed him to the Station-House, where he was detained the rest of the night. Bradley was, yesterday morning, taken before Justice Flandreau by Sergeant Bennett; but, on the representation of the Fire-Marshal, who examined the premises, and explained the appearance of the store and the manner in which in his opinion the fire originated, he was discharged.

SALE OF STEREOTYPE PLATES .- On Saturday, at the auction rooms of George A. Leavitt & Co., a number of stereotype plates were sold, including those of all the publications of Miller & Curtis, who are now in liquidation. The competition was solely between Derby & Jackson, Rudd & Carleton, Leavitt & Allen, Dick & Fitzgerald, and the authors, two or three of whom were represented. The first lot offered was the plates of Geo. W. Curtis's Works, in 5 vols., 12mo., subject to a copyright of 121 per cent. These five volumes, containing "Nile Notes," "Howadji in Syria," "Lotus Eating," "Potiphar Papers," and Prue and I," were started at $100 each, and went rapidly, in leaps of $10, up to $140. At this price they hung for a short time, when they again took a start and ran up to $205 each, at which they were knocked down to a gentleman who purchased them in behalf of the author. Two volumes by Herman Melville were withdrawn, and the next lot, "Twice Married; a Tale of Connecticut Lafe," with the privilege of paying 10 per cent copyright, received only one bid of $20 and for that sum became the property of Dick & Fitzgerald. The plates cost $133. "The Paragreens." by Signor Ruffini, author of " Doctor Antonio," rer zo Benoni," &c., which cost $310, and included the woodcuts, was sold to Rudd & Carleton for $25, being the only bid. "Brittany and La Vandee," by Emile Souvestre, cost $140, sold to Rudd & Carleton for $20. These publishers also bought "The Golden Dagon," by Dr. J. W. Palmer, for $25, 10 per cent copyright cost $180. "Lake Ngami," by Chas. J. Audersson, I vol. 8vo., with wood cuts, cost $416, was started at $50, and bought by Derby & Jackson for $135. This firm also became the purchasers of the 12mo, edition of Wilkie Collins's "Dead Secret" for $100; of "Cali fornia, In-doors and Out," by Mrs. E. W. Farnham, for $25, cost $303; of the "Life of Tai-Ping-Wang, Chief of the Chinese Insurrection," by J. Milton Mackie, cost $285, for $20-the work being subjest to copyright of ten per cent after the sale of 1,000 more copyright of ten per cent after the sale of 1,000 more copies, which is required to pay expenses. Dick & Fitz-gerald bought the "Mormons at Home," by Mrs. C. B. Ferris, for $15, cost $161; also three juveniles, "Town and Country," "About New-York," and "Gold and Silver." costing in the aggregate $154, at $21 50 each. Leavitt & Allen bought "Tales of Flemish Life," by Hendrick Conscience, for $17, cost $150; also vols. 13, 14 and 15 of "Househeld Words," at $80 each, and 9 mosths of "The Schoolfellow," with cuts, for $85. The volume of "The Schoolfellow" for 1856 was bought by Dick & Fitzgerald for $105. "Chile con Carne," by S. Compton Smith, was purchased by the author for $65. The following stereotype works, to which we append respectively cost and price obtained, were bought in for their value as old metal : "Political Essays," by Parke Godwin, $195-$15; "Oriental Acquaintance," by J.W. De Forrest, author of "Witching Times," a current serial in Putnam-alas, poor ghost !-$173-$15; "Greece and the Greeks," by Edand About, $140-$15: "Zillab, the Child Medi $175-$12; "A History of the Struggle for Slavery Extension," by Horace Greeley, cost $177, including probably the payment to the author, brought $15, and "The Englishman in Kansas" $12. There were altogether 23 lots, including 14 copyright publications, counting Curtis's five volumes as one lot, and out of these, 7 were stated not to have paid expenses, and of the others, except Curtis's, the same may be reasonpropitious for such sales. CITY MORTALITY.—From the report of the City In-spector, we learn that there were 609 deaths in this city during the past week-a decrease of 62, as compared with the mortality of the preceding week. The report does not present any particularly striking feature, except in the increased number of deaths from violent causes, and the decrease in the general mortality of the week, particularly in cholers infantum and consumption. Of the total number of deaths, 444 were of children of ten years of age and under. The following table exhibits the number of deaths during the past two weeks among adults and children, distinguishing the sexes:

SUPERIOR COURT-SPECIAL TERM. -Sept. 17. -Before Horstin F. Averill, Receiver, &c., of A. G. Howard, agt. J. K. Southmayd & Co.

By mistake in the report of this case in Friday's paper, exactly the opposite of the fact was stated. The motion on the part of plaintiff was for an Injunction and Receiver on account of some supposed interest of A. G. Howard in the firm of defendant. It appearing by the affidavits read on the motion that Howard had no interest in the firm of del and property all belonged to Mr. Southmayd, the motion was of course DENIED, not "granted" as stated in Friday's issue.

SUPREME COURT-SPECIAL TERM-SEPT. 13.—Before Judge Francov.

This case was continued according to adjournment yesterday at 12 m. Mr. Brady made the closing argument for Mr. Devlin. He prefaced his argument by alluding to what had been remarked by Mr. Noyes, in regard to the country of Courts, and said that he would undertake to say that the decisions of Mr. Justice Ingraham had been less frequently reversed than those of any Judge of this or any other Court is this city. He was shown to be a man of high henor and of much judicial scu-men. Here he would leave the dignity and comity of Courts, without alluding to it further. He then proceeded to an extend-ed and elaborate argument of his points, and finished with an allusion to the danger there was to the Judiciary, if one Court was allowed to control the action of its equal and coordi-nate. Mr. Brady's argument occupied nearly three hours, and at a few minutes before three the Court afjourned the case until 12 m. on Monday, when Mr. Field will slose on the part of Mr. Conover. THE OLD POLICE—THE WRITS OF MANDAMUS QUASHED

The People on the relation of Patrick Murphy sgt. The Police Commissioners.

The plaintiff, on the return of an alternative manda-The plaintiff, on the return of an alternative mandamus, asks a perceptory mandamus commanding the defendants to admit the relator to the office, rights and powers of a policeman or patrolman. The defendants move to quash the write, on the ground that it is directed to the Police Commissioners for the Metropolitan Police District and not to the Board of Police of said district. The act creating the officess treats the Commissioners as members of the Board of Police, and the principal duties and powers of the Commissioners are exercised in and as members of the Board of Police, and if all the duties and powers of these officers were to be exercised in the Board, and this class of officers were the only members of the Board, the address to them as Commissioners might be very much this same thing in effect as the address to the Board which must be composed of them.

This is not the case, however; several classes of duties devolve on them individually, as Commissioners, not as the Board, or members of it.

Section 20, for instance, confers certain powers on such Commissioner individually and personally. The Commissioners when acting in their official character, do not always act as a Board of Police, but have powers and owe duties, as Commissioners, which do not relate to the Board, or to them as members of it.

The Police Commissioners, moreover, do not compose or con-

Board of Police, but have powers and owe duties, at commissioners, which do not relaie to the Board, or to them as members of it.

The Police Commissioners, moreover, do not compose or constitute the Board of Police, although always members of it; they are not, even when acting as a board the entire Board of Police. The act, sec. I, provides for the appointment of five Commissioners of Police, in a certain manner, and nowhere that I have see, is the number spoken of as more than five. Nor as there any intimation contained in it that the number of Commissioners therein spoken of should be more than five; on the contrary, the number provided and the whole number contemplated by that act, in any part of it, seems to be five, and average of the commissioners, together with the Mayors of the cities of Brooklyn and New-York, exaging, section I proceeds: "The said Commissioners, together with "the Mayors of the cities of Brooklyn and New-York, exaging," shall constitute a quorum of such Board," &c.

The Commissioners and the two Mayors, then, constitute the Board. The Commissioners alone do not constitute it. The Mayors are exaging members the Board, but they are not, that I perceive, Commissioners, unless membership of the Board makes them so, and if it does, it only makes them so when acting in the Board and as members of it. Out of the Board they are not Commissioners, and a precept addressed to the Commissioners as such, would not embrace, the Mayors, even if while acting in the Board, they are, as members of it, Commissioners, and a precept addressed to the Commissioners.

if while acting in the Board, they are, as members of it. Commissioners.

But there is nothing that I discover to lead to the opinion that, even while acting in the Board, they are, by reason of membership, Commissioners. It is nowhers said that the Board shall be composed of Commissioners, or that the members of are such or act in that character; on the contrary, the passage I have quoted suggests very plainly the reverse.

The Commissioners and Mayors, it says in substance, compose the Board, and the Mayors are members. The Mayors of New-York and Brooklys are nowhere in the act explet, and they are not within tae language of the act, Commissioners.

The Board of Polic is not somposed entirely of the Commissioners is fore, but of five Commissioners. The write being addressed to the commissioners was not term and the two Mayors. The number of Commissioners. The write being addressed to the Commissioners, was not even addressed to all the seven who composed the Board, but only to five out of the seven members.

The address in that case would have been blerady incorrect, be doubt, for it about here been addressed to their body aggregate and organized, in a manuer to constitute the body in which it was intended, and which alone has power to do the acts sength to be enforced. But if the address had anheaded individually all these persons or offseen who collectively constituted the Board, the question would have been surfered difficult than the case now presented. As it is, the writ is defective in not heing addressed to the Board, nor to all the individuals who composed it. Such as defect in feat let it. (Topping to Mardannas, 311; John. On Wednesday last, the officers were indicated by the Grand Jury, and their trial set down for the next day at 10 o'clock a.m., without giving them time to consult their counsel.

On the same evening, they applied, through their counsel, b. D. Field, to the Hon.
